

Bachelor in Computer Applications

Course Title: Technical Writing

Code No: Semester: 5

Full Marks: 60 Pass Marks: 24 Time: 3 hours

Candidates are required to answer the questions in their own words as far as practicable.

Note: Group A (Multiple Choice Questions) is not available from the source. The paper begins with Group B.

Group B

1. What do you understand by document version control? Elaborate on its parts.
2. How important is revision in technical writing? Briefly discuss the stages of revision.
3. What is collaborative writing? Talk about the advantages of writing in teams.
4. Write instructions for "Replacing the Fuel Filter".
5. Think of a problem at your college in which you are studying and write a proposal.
6. Write a letter to the Principal, asking for some logistic support to organize a program on the impact of the overuse of social media on youths.
7. You are the secretary of the Student Council of your college. Write a memo informing the members about the decisions taken by the council meeting.
8. Write a job application highlighting your skills for the post of a Web Page Designer.
9. Write a short oral presentation on the impacts of reliance on Artificial Intelligence in today's world.
10. Assuming that you are a Computer Engineer with a couple of years of experience in the related field, write a resume. Mention all the necessary details so that you can impress the employer.
11. Edit the sentences in the following exercise to make them as clear and concise as possible, without changing their meaning.
a. It is difficult to establish a general area cost per square foot of installation for this system due to the fact that each installation is quite unique and depends on many different factors.
b. While it is true that many international consumer electronics manufacturers will add Netflix buttons to their remote controls for the North American market, it is a fact that there may be severe monthly bandwidth limitations imposed on Canadian consumers.
12. Write short notes on:
a. Netiquette
b. Tone in Writing