

2080

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science and Information Technology

Course Title: Technical Writing

Code No: CSC368 Semester: 6th Semester

Full Marks: 60 Pass Marks: 24 Time: , cost, and objectives. Write a short proposal comparing the laptops available in market of at least three renowned companies. Your proposal must include problem, solutions, and findings.2.As writing is not an overnight endeavor it follows a certain process. Discuss a process for technical writing.3.You have watched one of your peer's vlog (video blog) entries on the issue of "Blocked mind as a malfunction of communication." What have you learned in addition to the ideas you learned from your teacher? How do your experiences in unblocking the mind differ from your peer? Write feedback to your peer's vlog.Section BAttempt any Eight questions[8×5=40]4.What are graphics? How are they used in technical writing?5.Point out the differences between technical writing and academic writing.6.What is plagiarism? Why should we remain honest on borrowing others' ideas?7.Write a memo to your immediate boss about the arrangements you have made for the upcoming meeting.8.What issues should a web designer be concerned about when planning a web page?9.Construct a resume for the position you are eager to apply in one of the companies in the US. In the resume present the candidate's professional ability to contribute to a new employment.10.Can you be a good friend with someone from another culture as with someone from your own culture? Explain.11.Write a brief newspaper article on the opening of 25th Branch of universal IT solution in Pokhara Headquarter.12.Discuss the advantages of collaborative writing.13. Make a flow-chart diagram of your dream application.14. Imagine you are the manager of a company. You need to inform participant that a new product is being launched on the occasion of New Year. Prepare a memo for your staff to understand and execute your plan.15. Write short notes on:a. Zoom Presentationb. Ethical Dilemma

Candidates are required to answer the questions in their own words as far as practicable.

Section A

1. Suppose you are working as an IT expert in the National Bank of Nepal, and you will need five laptops for daily operation. Your manager asks you to present a proposal with time, cost, and objectives. Write a short proposal comparing the laptops available in market of at least three renowned companies. Your proposal must include problem, solutions, and findings.
2. As writing is not an overnight endeavor it follows a certain process. Discuss a process for technical writing.
3. You have watched one of your peer's vlog (video blog) entries on the issue of "Blocked mind as a malfunction of communication." What have you learned in addition to the ideas you learned from your teacher? How do your experiences in unblocking the mind differ from your peer? Write feedback to your peer's vlog.

Section B

Attempt any Eight questions[8×5=40]

4. What are graphics? How are they used in technical writing?
5. Point out the differences between technical writing and academic writing.
6. What is plagiarism? Why should we remain honest on borrowing others' ideas?

-
7. Write a memo to your immediate boss about the arrangements you have made for the upcoming meeting.
 8. What issues should a web designer be concerned about when planning a web page?
 9. Construct a resume for the position you are eager to apply in one of the companies in the US. In the resume present the candidate's professional ability to contribute to a new employment.
 10. Can you be a good friend with someone from another culture as with someone from your own culture? Explain.
 11. Write a brief newspaper article on the opening of 25th Branch of universal IT solution in Pokhara Headquarter.
 12. Discuss the advantages of collaborative writing.
 13. Make a flow-chart diagram of your dream application.
 14. Imagine you are the manager of a company. You need to inform participant that a new product is being launched on the occasion of New Year. Prepare a memo for your staff to understand and execute your plan.
 15. Write short notes on:
 - a. Zoom Presentation
 - b. Ethical Dilemma